Tomahawk Bows®

BEST OF THE BEST™

Tomahawk Bows® began with the creativity and ingenuity of Dale Karch, former owner of 3Rivers Archery, and his passion to create a bow that was elegantly simple, yet would hold up to the rigorous demands of bowhunting.

Dale used his expertise as a tool and die maker to create a traditional bow that does precisely that.

All Tomahawk Bows® feature a unique “trapped” deflex/reflex limb profile, paired with beautiful woods and flawless workmanship, all culminating into an impressive combination of speed, smoothness, and stability.

Truly making our Tomahawk Bows® the “Best of the Best.™”

- Dalaa® 19" Riser - We've taken the popular 19" riser length and added a variety of features to give you more flexibility in customizing your Dalaa® to your preferences. The removable 4.48 oz. brass weight gives you extreme riser balance where you need it. Dual stainless steel bushings have been added to the back and belly, below the grip for stabilizers or barebow weights, as well as dual plunger holes for elevated or shooting off-the-shelf options, and ATA accessory holes for mounting sights, quivers, or other accessories.

#8147 Black Anodized (no grip) - DAS™ $499.99 ILF $549.99 +$50 for Sniper Green

- HT-21 Riser - a collaboration with The Push Archery and TradLab. Together we designed, tested, and tweaked every inch of the 21" Dalaa® to build the ultimate riser for the modern bowhunter who wants to extend their shooting into the competitive realm. We've added a 2nd recessed plunger hole along with modifying and optimizing the plunger holes positioning for increased shootability, tunability, and accuracy. The radiused shelf has been extended for more off-the-shelf tuning. A stabilizer bushing has been added on the belly in-line with the front bushing, and a thicker scribed center line. The limb pad attachment has been reinforced and limb butt clearance has been increased. It has even gained some deflex to the profile. The largest modification is the innovative barebow weight system for customizing your riser for precision balancing. Included with every riser are two 4.8 oz brass side plates, wrenches, and adjustable strike button.

Options: right or left hand, matte black anodized finish or DuraCoat® sniper green finish, and ILF or DAS™ limb connection.

FLEMISH TWIST STRINGS

Made from several bundles of strands twisted upon themselves. Designed to adjust the length by twisting the string tighter as the string stretches. They are also rounder and easier to install silencers on than other types of strings.

- It's possible for the area by the string loops to appear to be fraying. This is common and is not damaging to the string. To remove the fraying rub your hand on the strands to lay them down. The wax in the string will hold the strands down. It is not recommended to trim fraying strands.

How To Find The Right Spine For You

Our Spine Selection Charts are a great starting point, BUT they are only a reference point, not guaranteed to be an EXACT match for your bow. Test kits are highly recommended.

STEP 1: Find your Arrow Length and Draw Length.

The Correct Arrow Length is best determined by drawing back an extra-long arrow (draw check arrow below) to full draw and having someone mark the arrow right in front of the handle. Measure the arrow from the mark to the valley (deepest part) of the nock groove. This is your DRAW Length. For ARROW length we recommend adding 1 or 2 inches to this measurement so your broadhead will not bump the bow shelf. For target archery this is not as important, but be sure to leave enough arrow so it does not come off the inside of the bow shelf.

STEP 2: Determining Actual Peak Bow Weight

This is measured at your draw length, not by what the bow has written on it. The reason is a bow will be roughly 2-3# different for every inch +/- the rated draw length. Even if you draw at your bow's rated draw (normally 28") the industry standard allows a bow manufacturer to be $\pm 2\#$ from rated bow weight and still mark/sell at the rated weight. So your marked 45# @ 28" bow could actually be 47# @ 28". Using an accurate scale, see page 65, draw the string until you hit your draw length and hold. Observe the weight on the scale. Repeat as you see fit.

STEP 3: Arrow Selection Chart

Once you have your Arrow Length and Actual Bow Peak Weight, you are ready to select your correct arrow spine. Find your bow type and bow weight along with the point weight you plan to use. Most common is 125 grains. Now move across the chart until you find your arrow length. Note: The 1/2" marks over lap on the chart, if you are on two different spines we highly recommend getting a test kit first. Remember, these are only recommendations, the final decision is up to you.

Easton Draw Length Indicator Shaft

An easy, convenient way to check your draw length on your own bow. Clear markings show you the exact measurement in inches. Measures draw lengths up to 34". Not for shooting.

What Wing Feather to Shoot?

It is an old belief that Right hand (RH) shooters must shoot Left wing (LW) so the arrow spins away from the riser. This is not the case. An arrow only starts spinning once it is several feet in front of the bow, so feel free to shoot Left or Right wing

What Feather Profile?

This is also a personal choice. The bigger and longer the feather is, the more surface area for wind to drag on. This not only stabilizes your arrow in flight, but slows it down. The most popular is 5" shield. The difference is small, but some believe parabolic to be quieter as it has slightly less surface area compared to shield cut.

SPINE SELECTION CHARTS

Using these charts or calling our tech line can help you pick a spine, however, the final choice is yours. No refunds on arrows that have been cut or "don't fly right." Follow the directions on left page on how to use below spine charts.
